“Are You Living Your KNOWING?: Yes Or No – A Participatory Satsang”

Our Teacher, Dr. Roger B. Lane, began His January Satsang by saying, “I want to talk a little bit about your Knowing and what are you doing with your Knowing? Are you going with It or not? ...

I’m going to give some examples ... And it’s going to focus and bring to the forefront some of The Teachings that are on the Path Of Soul Transcendence. The first one ... is we’re Worthy of the Spirit that we are. And are you living that Knowledge? Because we know, Spiritually, how it works is we’re held accountable for everything whether we know it or not. ...”

“Death’ And Its Unveiling: A Participatory Satsang”

Given in Honor of Betsy Silbert Tanjeloff

Our Teacher, Dr. Roger B. Lane, began His February Satsang by saying, “I’m going to be doing something crazy tonight and that is I’m going to be talking about something that doesn’t exist. And I’m going to talk about where it comes from; why we have this thing called ‘death’, etc.; what it really is; what it means. And also underscoring it all is obviously the Purpose of HU-man life because we’re all here and we’re all wearing the identical uniform. ... We’re all wearing a body and there’s a reason for that.

Let’s take it all the way back! ... We did a Meditation on the ancient name of the Lord, God - H-U. ... And that’s where we as humans come in because HU is the First Manifestation of the Lord, God... And we’re called HU-mans. That’s another way of saying, ‘In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God.’ What’s the Word? The Sound Current ... So that tells us Who we are. We’re God-man.

“As Souls what have we done? We’ve entered into sleep. ... And we’ve forgotten Who we are. And we’ve identified with our thoughts, our feelings - the things of the world in the world of form that we entered because we were given this experience to experience part of God’s Creation. ...”

“We create separation from Spirit, from God. ... And the illusion of separation is what gives us the incredible sense of desperation, of fear, of lack, of limitation, etc. And it’s a construct. But who constructed it? We did. Each of us as a Soul: every choice we make we’re karmically Responsible for it. Each choice away from the Spirit that we are... that’s another separation. ... We’re buying into that illusion and we’re keeping it going. ...”

“So what happens at ‘death’, what we call ‘death’? Basically, absolutely nothing. The only thing that happens is that you’re dropping this body that is the uniform we all wear in this world of form on this planet. You drop it. And, you know, I’d love to believe that we could have an easy shot: that if I believe in this religion or if I believe in this or if I believe in that we can go to God because you drop the body. But it’s true because God exists on all levels. I’m not going to get very technical because we have people who aren’t familiar with The Teachings that I bring forth but, just very briefly, the Soul within us lives on many levels. And, OK, that means there are many frequencies within; and It’s obviously asleep on those levels. That’s where the karma is; that’s the karma that you’ve created in your existence as a Soul using many, many bodies. So you have this karma upon you. With karma you can’t see. You can’t see properly. The karma that sits on the Soul ... precludes you from seeing clearly. So basically we know things ... by reflection. We know it as it is ... filtered through the karmic field.

“Now when a Soul takes Initiation into The Sound Current then you can know things directly because you’re able to go into the Soul Body. This is Key. You’re able to go into the Soul Body. And if you’re doing Meditation ... exactly as instructed on This Path you’re able to go into the Soul Body on the level that you’re working with. Eventually the Soul reaches what’s called Eternal Life. ...”

“There are levels that the Soul lives on below what’s called the Soul Realm where It is subject to karma and reincarnation. We have this thing called karma and reincarnation. It’s not an idea. It’s not a nice Eastern thing. ... It’s very much ... part of our Truth as being people here. So we have this thing called karma and reincarnation. Then we have this thing called Eternal Life. What’s Eternal Life? Eternal Life is when the Soul has come to Know Itself as Soul, as Spirit and in that Process It has been Upvibrated so that It can be with God, be with The Father and It can stand that Frequency. And It is no longer subject to karma and reincarnation. ..."

"We're very materialistic. I don't mean in the pursuit of money, though that's part of it. But just we believe that whatever the senses bring forth - that's the truth. Therefore, if you can't see something it doesn't exist. ... You're not going to see God with your physical eyes but there's a Way to be with Him. There's a Way to Know Him. And, in fact, there is a Way to see Him. And that's the ability to go into the Soul Body through the Gift of Initiation and be Present with God. And That, in effect, really is what the Soul is involved with here on this planet. ..."

"We're living in counter distinction to what's called 'death'. God gives us this thing called life, here on the planet, which, by the way, Spiritually is called 'death'. And we have to Resurrect from this 'death' into Life Eternal. And there's a Way to do That. There's the Initiatory Process: ... Where you Fulfill the Purpose of HU-man life, Which is to Know God and to Know yourSelf as Soul, as Spirit.

"This Talk honors Betsy. It honors Betsy not as Betsy the person and her roles in this world, although she certainly was wonderful and I'll personally miss her smile and her laugh and horrible jokes. ... It's to honor how she used the life that God's given her to come to know herSelf as Soul, as Spirit and Fulfill the Purpose of HU-man life.

"And when we sit in what we call Simran and Dhyana, What the world calls Meditation, we access the Soul Body. We're with God. We're with God. And the only difference between That and what the world calls 'death' is that the silver cord is cut in 'death' [ed's note: Dr. Lane is referring to the part of the Soul Body that anchors It to the physical body].

"Now I realize a lot of people walk around, have no clue what it [ed's note: Dr. Lane is referring to karma] is or they don't think it exists. They think it's a nice concept or it only pertains to the East. I once had someone come here, I mentioned something about karma and she said to the person who brought her 'I don't have karma'. When this feedback was given to me I thought 'that's incredible' in the sense of she couldn't even begin to believe it, let alone know it, but what she was saying is 'I am so very, very special. I'm more important than anybody else on this planet because I'm the only one that God made a mistake with' because we're here, we wouldn't be here unless we had karma with the rare exception of a Great Soul Who comes back here to take some Souls Home. That's a rare thing. I'm not talking about that rare thing.

"We're at the effect of karma and we don't see it; we don't know it and we don't want to take that Responsibility. I don't teach 'you can't do this, you can't do that.' No, I teach you do it in Love and you know that you are Soul, you are Spirit. But we live in a culture here that when someone dies it is like a horrible thing has happened. Something has been done to them. ... We'll do anything to try to control ... this thing called 'death'. The irony of the whole thing is we're doing nothing. The only way to do it is you want to be Responsible for your 'death' and your 'dying'? Real simple. You take The Path into Eternal Life. Take The Path as instructed, laid out by God to know yourSelf as Soul, as Spirit and, in the Process, we complete the karmic journeys here.

"When someone has 'died' we also want to hang onto them. We want to hold onto them; we want to hold on to their memory, etc., etc. And we'd like to believe, 'Hey, they're still with us.' ... In reality, that's detrimental to the Soul because the Soul has Its Progression. The Soul is here to Progress Spiritually. We love to think we have a spouse. We love to think we have children. We love to think we have grandchildren. But they're not ours. They're not ours. What they are is a Blessing in the sense of giving us an Opportunity and a great, great Adventure to move through some stuff, through our karma. And they're also great avenues for our Love to spill out into the world. Like Betsy's Love spilled out into her family.

"But a Soul is not a mother, a father, a son or a child, or a daughter or a grandson or anything else like that. That's the role that the housing for the Soul played. So much of our belief in 'death,' which is obviously an ego process, has to do with separation, has to do with buying into materialism, that this is all there is, etc. So much of that is predicated on some false claim. That claim is we're alone in this world. ... All we're here to do is be Present inside ourSelves with the Spirit we are. With the Spirit we are. ..."

"God has given us a Way to be really smart. And that Way, of course, is to go inward, Know God directly thought this Process called Initiation into The Sound Current, the Holy Spirit. It's important we do our mourning; very important because we have to honor being in the physical. But what we don't want to do is, we don't want to keep pulling that Soul back out of our neediness, out of our loneliness. And we want to know that the mourning is not about the person who is deceased. ... It's about us. And we're mourning the loss of them in our lives. And that's a very different story. But we don't want to be pulling on them because it is very important that the Soul goes to where it needs to go. ..."

"You do your mourning but you do it from a Loving spot! Another thing, too, that's very important is that, OK, you miss the physicality and the loss but how about the celebration because it was you? It was you that the Agreement was with to be the spouse, to be the child, to be the grandchild, etc. And you were chosen and you got to participate in this person's Love and Light. I know that I, personally, rather than miss Betsy, I'm going to move right into Appreciation. 'Hey, thanks for sharing that stupid joke! Thanks for giving me that smile. Thanks for bringing me this bottle of water'. Whatever it was. The other thing, too, is, I want to move off a memory track because then I'm into the mind; when I'm into the mind, guess what I'm doing? I'm forgetting that we're all One. That life is all One. ... It's beyond that we're 'connected'. We're only connected if you buy into the illusion that we're all separate. ..."

"Even while we're in the body, we're in the Oneness of Spirit. Most of us have forgotten that. Betsy chose to live a life where she turned That into a Remembrance by her efforts, by the work that she did, by the Inner Work, by Following The Teachings. That's very important. ... Betsy applied herSelf and came into the Knowing. There is a Way to Know God and to Know Spirit objectively. This Path has been here forever. ... God lives in us as us. God lives in us as we, as each of us. We're a particular Manifestation of That. ... When somebody has spent his or her life Allowing the Upvibration Process, allowing the Soul to Know Itself as Soul, as Spirit and has come face to face with Spirit, with the Soul that It is, then It is Home Free. ..."

"We don't get how magnificent we are. We don't get that we are Spirit and then when someone dies... we have a little wake up call and we think, 'Oh, wow, time is really important! Time is precious! What a Gift this life is!' Then we go back to our normal routine. But I want to ask you to honor Betsy by really taking it to heart what she did in her life and she used it to Fulfill the Purpose of HU-man life, of coming to Know herSelf as Soul, as Spirit. Not in a belief system, not as part of a religion or anything else like that. But through Spiritual Instruction on how to access the Soul within her and Know God directly. ..."

"Betsy's passing needs to be celebrated. Not just because of the Love that she had, how she spilled It all over the place. ... Why don't all of you do What Betsy did in her life, Which was to honor the Spirit within? The other thing, too, is so many of us have a judgment on how could this person have 'died'; 'this person was such a nice person, had so much to live for, etc., etc.? ...' 'There's so many nasty, mean people, how come God took this lovely, lovely being?' Well, my understanding is that God didn't take Betsy at all. ... Her body is still here because the body can't go to God. ... The body's purpose is to last just as long as needed, as the Soul needs it. ..."

"The Resurrection is being able to go into the Soul Body through the Process of Initiation and coming to Know yourSelf as Soul, as Spirit and completing your karmic journeys and then going on Home to God, entering into Eternal Life. ... Let those people who are subject to karma and reincarnation and believe in 'death', who believe in this great illusion of separation, let them bury the 'dead'. And you, you celebrate the living. And, of course, how is the living celebrated? Talking about the Living God. ... We go into the Soul Body and be with God because That is what is eventually going to happen. ..."

Betsy is telling us that it ain't about 'dying' but it's about living while you're here. Living while you're here has to do with Celebrating the Living God, being with Spirit, coming to Know yourSelf as Soul, as Spirit; doing the Inner work; having the Courage and the Strength to do That ... We go inside and worship with God and that's What Betsy did and that's a great cause for Celebration. ..."

"When we sit in what the world calls Meditation - What we call Simran and Dhyān - ... we Receive the Holy Spirit or the Sound Current and we come to know ourSelves as Soul, as Spirit through This. So It's a whole Process of Learning how to be quiet. ... We rise above the thoughts and feelings. So It's all training for That. Training to Receive. ..."

"One of the things you always want to do is ... actively and consciously apply what you've Learned. Because what the Spirit does is It's going to test you to see if you've mastered it. ... It's just a Loving test to assure and insure that you have mastered what you need to master Spiritually so that you're held accountable. Obviously, if you're sitting in ... Simran and Dhyān and you don't feel worthy of God or Spirit you're not going to be able to Receive ..."

"As an Initiate you're Blessed to be dealing right on with the confrontation - and I say that in a good way - between you as Soul, as Spirit and with the lower self. ... We know that our choices and the pulls into the negative polarity of hurt and pain and fear, etc. and anger and resentment, you know all that good stuff - it's there as a strengthener so that we can move into the Spirit we are; we can choose into Spirit ..."

"Another key Teaching is that God in His Kindness and His Mercy gave us Free Will. We have Free Will. And to many of us we go along with our habits and our patterns ... But you reap what you sow. ... Spiritually we are karmically responsible for our thoughts and our patterns and we have Free Will so we can always choose away. We're not bound by them. And the option of not being bound by them comes by the great Gift of Initiation into the Sound Current because you volitionally say ... 'OK, God, I'm Focusing into You. I'm going to Know mySelf as Soul and as Spirit. So, as such, I'm presupposing something ... that ... if I can choose into You then there must be something in this world that offers me the choice away from You.' ... God in His Kindness and His Mercy ... offers us an Opportunity to open up the door of the prison of matter. The Sound Current, the Holy Spirit - Whatever you want to call It - opens that door through Initiation. But you have to volitionally present yourSelf and then you have the choice into Spirit, into God. ..."

"There's always the need for practicing what you Know called Eternal Vigilance. That you have to practice being the Spirit that you are. ... It's interesting to me how practicing Eternal Vigilance deepens the knowledge that we are Spirit, that we are Soul and deepens the Gratitude that is in our Consciousness of, 'Hey! What a Blessed Opportunity we've been given by this thing called life that God's given us to Know ourSelves as Soul, as Spirit and to Know ourSelves and to complete our karmic journeys here.' But that's not the point of it. The point of it is to Love God. To be a Lover of God and in that Process we finish up. ..."

"If I'm a Lover of God how can I hold a negative thought against you? How can I hold a judgment against you? Because God lives in you as you, same Spirit in you as in me. So if I judge you ... I'm judging the Spirit that I am - That's God. I'm judging God. Well, Lovers of God just Love; they don't enter into judgments. ..."

"So we have this thing called our Knowing and yet many of us play dumb. And yet we're held Responsible so if you don't know you're held Responsible; if you know you're held Responsible. So what we're tasked to do is do things from our Knowing and constantly incorporate what we've Learned and do it consciously... And this is the key: you have to work things as a Conscious Being. Once you choose into old habitual ways or habits, you've lost your Consciousness. ..."

"When we go with our Knowing we need to have these conscious Reference Points... You can't deny the Truth of Who and What you are and the Blessings you've Received. But you also can't deny what you've been tasked with. Which is to be Responsible. Which is to choose into the Spirit you are. Which is to choose into Loving. And Love means to drop your agenda every time. ..."

"Where are you as a conscious self and what are you permitting? ... You may want to take a look at what you're doing and see ... is what I do really in Alignment with my assumptions and pronouncements and what I proclaim to be True? ... Because most of the time we just live in fear... of our Knowing. Our Knowing tells us we are Spirit, we are Free, we are Loved and that this is a very Sacred and special Opportunity to participate in that Knowing ... And are we really proclaiming that to ourSelves and to all our levels in our Consciousness?"

"So that's the trick and that's the task. Be consistent in your Knowing! Have conscious Reference Points! Be in Gratitude for what you have. ... Gratitude is Accepting what you've been given and having the Humility of Appreciation of Accepting It and of using It. And using It to Love and to Grow and to Allow the Upliftment of yourSelf and others.

"So, what'd I like to do is conclude with a short Process so I'm going to call in the Light Of The Most High, 'Lord, God, send us Your Light! And we put this time into Your Light for the Highest Good.' I'm just going to ask you a question and it is ... What is my Knowing? [pause] What is my Knowing? [pause] And how can I best live this Knowing? [pause]

"And we'll stop with that."

A Spirited question-and-answer session followed.

Betsy Silbert Tanjeloff Memorial Address by Dr. Roger B. Lane

Thank you for having me participate in the honoring of Betsy.

Jorge, Jasmine, Zak and Zen, Michael and James and your spouses and significant others and to all Betsy's extended family and friends, please accept my personal condolences and those of my wife as well as of the many members of Betsy's Spiritual Community and our heart-felt Love.

I met Betsy about 40 years ago when, just out of college - she did not go to NYU, you know, but to NYU in the Heights - she came to a Meditation that also concluded with some Chanting of an Ancient Name of the Lord, God that includes the element of Compassion: ANIHU (pronounced A-nigh-you). After this was over Betsy waited for everyone to leave and approached me with tears in her eyes and asked me whether she could talk to me? I said "sure" and asked her how I could help her? Between sobs, she stated that she had been so moved because I must really love my soon-to-be wife, Anna, and that one day she hoped to have a husband to love like I did Anna. I said that I do and that I wished the same for her. When I asked her why she was saying this she looked at me as if I did not understand and slowly started to explain: "I was so moved that you love Anna so much that you had everyone Chant her name." I then repeated the explanation that had been given before the Chanting and spelled out this Ancient Name of the Lord, God: "A", "N", "I", "H", "U". Betsy nodded her understanding and then started grinning and then broke into a laugh that I joined. We both had a very good and long-lasting laugh.

I tell this story because Betsy did get her wish to love someone very much: her husband Jorge. Then came Jasmine and Zak - two more to whom Betsy could be devoted to in love. And then Zen came. And more of Betsy's love spilled into the world.

Just as Betsy was devoted to loving her family and to her many friends Betsy also was Devoted to Love Itself - the Lord, God. In a world in which the illusion of separation and death hold sway and in which God is, at best, marginalized and/or left for fundamentalists, Betsy was Devoted to coming to know herSelf as Soul, as Spirit and to Know the Lord, God residing within. Rather than having the body - with its thoughts and emotions and attachments - define who and what she was, Betsy was mastering the Realization that this body is the housing for the Living God and she sought to live and be with the Hidden One.

It is, admittedly, a difficult balancing act - the pulls into this world and Betsy's necessity to do her Spiritual Progression and go within to Spirit according to the Spiritual Instructions she had been given. Yet, Betsy was learning to do This even among her conflict because of her tremendous love of family. But Betsy also knew that God's Love animates everything and that the more she as Soul could be with the Lord, God the more love would flow to her family and to others as a byproduct of her own Devotion.

Betsy had tremendous Courage to obey her Inner Imperative and Spiritual Knowing and, at the same time, meet her obligations in this world. I encourage all present to use Betsy as an example of Courage and to come to know yourSelves as Soul, as Spirit and to find the Hidden One and be with Him while in the body.

The Jewish prayer for the dead - the Mourner's Kaddish - asks us to do two things that are seemingly impossible when a loved one has died, especially when one has been seemingly "snatched" away: to glorify and praise the Name of God and to be at Peace. Please know that This is what Betsy did every day: she extolled and praised the Name of God by doing her Spiritual and Meditation Practice exactly as Taught and was at Peace as she used her time in this world to be with Spirit, the meaning of "as the above so the below."

I am grateful to the Lord, God for entrusting me with the Soul that was Present with Betsy for Spiritual Guidance and Instruction. And I am grateful to Betsy for sharing her life and family with me, including naming Anna and me the godparents of Jasmin and Zak. The day before Betsy left this world she sent me a video of Zen's strutting proudly for a few yards before executing a perfect nosedive. Above his squeals of delight I could hear Betsy's squeals of happiness participating in the life of her grandson.

Truth be told, I always uttered a silent squeal of inner happiness whenever I saw Betsy. I was not the only one in our Spiritual Community who felt this way. Betsy was so loved that some of Betsy's fellow Students sent me condolences, not only because Anna and I would miss Betsy but because the Center - the Community - would. A long-time fellow Student shared with me that, when she had heard about Betsy's passing, what immediately came to her was that Betsy was so unusual that it was almost "freakish". What was that unusual was that, in all the almost thirty years of knowing Betsy, she had never heard Betsy enter into negativity. She then concluded how important it is for everyone to emulate Betsy. Another Student also shared with me that, in her long association with the Center and with Betsy, she had never heard Betsy say a negative word about anything or anyone and vowed to duplicate this in her life. Betsy, just by being Betsy, was an example for others of a major Teaching of the Spiritual Path Betsy Walked as Soul.

A little over a year ago I was honored and Blessed to perform the wedding ceremony of another Student during a three-day celebration that Betsy and Jorge attended. At the wedding dinner following the ceremony Betsy and Jorge sat next to Anna and me and we spent many a delightful hour being regaled with tales and stories and jokes. I realized at this time that Betsy was not only Jorge's wife and companion and best friend but also his fellow comic. Their timing was exquisite and several times during those hours I felt we were having dinner with George Burns and Gracie Allen. Fortunately, without the cigar.

Betsy and I shared several dances during this time; actually, we shared space on the dance floor as I moved a little and watched in awe as Betsy did her dance moves. After a few songs, I realized that the only fair thing to do was to have Betsy have a partner whose abilities on the dance floor could come closer to matching Betsy's so, with a small valiant gesture and lots of embarrassment, I returned Betsy to Jorge.

This is what we must do now: inside ourSelves allow Betsy to "return" as Soul, as Spirit to the Divine Husbandman. In Truth, the Soul that was present with Betsy and all Souls have never left, but, through our choices over many embodiments, we have created and fostered this illusion of separation. Betsy used the life she was given to focus on the Knowing of this Oneness by being a Lover of the Lord, God and Walking the Spiritual Path that she did as a Soul - above and beyond thoughts about God and beyond those of any religion. Just as Betsy was an example to many in our Community may she be an example of the Fulfillment of the Purpose of HU-man Life: to Know yourSelf as Soul, as Spirit. For every Soul - no matter the color of the body It wears, or the religion or ethnicity or gender identity this body professes - must sooner or later Fulfill this Purpose. For this is God's Plan. Surely, Betsy's life can be your inspiration for Fullfiling This now.

So, too, is Betsy's leaving us part of God's Plan. So do your mourning for your loss - as we must honor the physical - but also know that All Life is One and Sacred and a part of God and It is in this Great Oversoul - the Lord, God - that we all live.

Thank you again for allowing me to be a part of this.

May the Blessings of the Light Of The Most High - of the Lord, God Himself - be with us, comfort us in our bereavement and be Allowed to Guide us and Protect us! Amen.
