Now Is The Time For the Real Education

Excerpts from the Satsang, "The Spiritual Reality of Mankind – Part II: The Six-Pointed North Star Of Human Destiny" (CD/MP3 #A90)

"The other day I spoke to someone on the phone, an Initiate, and he was going on - and I said, 'Well, you know you're entering into gossip.' And he just insisted and insisted. And I said 'Hey! you're entering into gossip.' And he said, 'Yeah, but it's true!' OK. And I just let him, you know, go on and on and on and on and on and on. OK, and I could just see the karma just being created, you know? So at the end of about five minutes I said, 'Boy! that's a lot of karma you just created, you know?' And he said, 'Yeah, but you're the only person I've told this to.' I mean I was honored [ed's note: Dr. Lane is being facetious]; I was deeply touched that he chose to use His Teacher to create karma - not listen to Him and decide to become the teacher. OK. And that's OK because he got to see or he'll get to see - guarantee that's karma that got created.

"Was he stupid? Yeah, he was stupid because he chose into karma. Was he ignorant? Yeah, he was ignorant because he chose to ignore that he's Spirit; OK? But by Spiritual Law he gets to be the teacher and because of where that particular Soul is working from, then he goes through it in karma. And he abdicates Grace; OK?

"See - and it's interesting because you saw a good example of this, of what's called, you know, self-will - the willfulness, the willfulness, the willfulness. And that's what we all do: we go against the Spirit. We go against the Spirit. As if there are no consequences to what we do. But there are. OK? Everything has a reaction, alright? And we [ed.'s note: 'we' refers to the Teachings Of The Path Of Soul Transcendence] don't focus into karma; we don't focus into reincarnation; we focus into Loving God and we focus into Grace. But in the education of a Soul it's very important that the Soul learn that It is responsible and It learns this through karma. And It learns that there's Justice - there may not be any justice in Washington or in Moscow or in any capital or any place in this world, but that's not the justice we're talking about, you know? We're talking about True Justice or Divine Justice and that's karma. Where you're held accountable and your own Soul holds you accountable. No one's immune, you know?

"You see - and my job is not to be a policeman - see I was kind enough - he knew that he was violating Spirit and I was kind enough to remind him once and then I reminded him twice - but my job isn't to arrest him or stop him if he chooses that or she chooses that. Hey! I'll just point out the other Way. If you're smart enough to take That Way, God Bless you. If you do it your way, well, that's what you get. You get your way. But my question is: If your way hasn't worked before why do you think it's going to work now? You know? I don't think it's going to happen. But the Soul has to have these lessons; It has to have these occasions; It has to have this understanding. OK and It has to have the experiences of incarnation, reincarnation, reincarnation and coming back and coming back and coming back. And that's crucial; OK?

"And then what usually happens is that the separation that that Soul has created between Itself and God or, really, within Itself, gets to be so burdensome and so painful that eventually It starts to turn and It starts to turn towards God, towards Spirit; OK? But that's part of our Destiny, too. To have these experiences and to learn about these unseen forces - these non-material forces called karma and reincarnation; OK? And just because they can't be seen with the physical eye doesn't mean they don't exist; you know. And the fact that you're in a body proves that it exists. That you can easily see. But because of how the karmic field is set up - the cloud, the muddiness, whatever you want to call it - we don't make the connection. We don't realize that, 'Hey! this is our body and we have it because of previous creations; OK? And that's OK; you'll have enough of those bodies until you get to know that, you see? But guess what? I don't really pay attention to that stuff either, you know? Because there's so much focus on karma and doing the wrong thing and all that kind of stuff and fear. And I just teach Love. But the Journey of the Soul is from fear to Love; the Soul needs to go through that understanding of karma and reincarnation. OK?"

"... And ... in the Soul's karmic pattern it will come eventually to the point where It starts Its education process in a very conscious way, you know? And isn't it interesting, if you take a look at life - and some of you may be too young to appreciate this yet but some of you've been educated and gone to school, etc., etc., in order to get this job or do this work or whatever; OK? And that's nice; OK - but there's something missing with that. In general, people sense that there's something missing in their life. You know, they have whatever they're supposed to have, they've done whatever they're supposed to do and there's something missing; OK? And the missing is that Quality we're talking about - of being a Soul; and with Soul and as Soul;

and coming to know yourSelf as Soul.

"And that's the point of the embodiment - so that you can start to know That. And that's what real education is about, you know? And we focus on a Model that I've developed and it's a mixture of experiential and scholarship. It's not about spiritual 'frou-frou' and up-in-the-air stuff, but It's very real; It's very practical. What It does do is It commands your attention and It commands your focus and It also does command an integration of the faculties that you do have. And that's key; OK?"

"And it's interesting, the world tends to devalue This because it really doesn't know itSelf. So it devalues things of the Spirit, the things of the Soul; OK? And yet what's happening is that Human Destiny is moving in to This and now actually is the time where Education of the Soul becomes of keynote importance; OK?"

"So the Six-Pointed Star that's Human Destiny - It's here now. This is the time - it's time for the True Teachings to come out; it's time for the Spirit We Are - not just to evolve but for all of society and all of mankind to come into this focus; OK?"

Case Study

By reading & being Present with the Talk "The Spiritual Reality of Mankind - Part II: The Six-Pointed North Star of Human Destiny" I now have a heightened understanding of Grace & more of a sensitivity to what I have allowed, up until now, to pull me out of Grace. For me this is mostly willfulness & volition. I've had the regular areas of my life that we Souls elevate to and with which we identify until we remind ourSelves that it's all God - "relationships", "success", "health", "happiness". I've had wonderful Learnings with each; however, by the Grace of this Case Study (that I also inwardly fought against & procrastinated on) I see an undercurrent or habit that I'm ready to let go of. I have often been willful (my will over God's Will or the choice away from Grace.) I've kind of "assigned" what I feel is best in all these areas. What I've learned is Grace has a beautiful Divine momentum, whereas willfulness has the attributes of a breath - what goes in must come out! so to speak. So relationships fulfilled where my worthiness level was and ran their course; money came & went many times; I was able to run as far as anyone with a cracked hip & I was often & naturally very happy but it still lacked the consistency of Joy. Grace needed to be embraced.

The Choices I'm making involve Acceptance, gentle persistence & Love. Moving forward I have a Divine Action Plan! The same energy I was using to push, pull & "control" the things of the world, I am now using inwardly! I'll stop & take the time to create wisely & just hang out with God; I'm ready to let God be God and lead me. For example, if I feel uncentered about any area of my life I call in the Light Of The Most High by saying "Lord, God, please send me Your Light!"; I then proceed to say "For the Highest Good Lord, God, please Center me in Spirit, hold me in Your Heart & help me drop anything that is not of Grace!" Further I add "(my name) It's okay to let it all go!" As my Beloved Teacher Always Teaches & Creates "It REALLY is that simple!"
